

Staying Connected

Wednesday 24th November 2021

10.00am - 10:05am	Welcome and introduction with Michael Golding, BACP Governor
10.05am - 10.45am	Tasha Walsh - Neurodiversity in the Therapy World & what needs to change! It is estimated that 20% of the population is Neurodiverse and with the increased prevalence of mental distress and requirement for psychological therapies for this disadvantaged population, it is imperative that we as therapist are adequately trained to work with this group. This presentation will discuss the work that Tasha does and many others in North do with this population, how complex the work is and what we can do to change things for the better. Tasha is a Relationally trained Counsellor , have DDP level 1 and I'm a Certified Autoplay Therapist. Tasha worked for eight years within a cluster of schools in Leeds but now has a private practice. Tasha has a special interest in therapeutically supporting, advocating for CYP & adults who are Neurodivergent, and offers training in Neurodiversity and other areas. Tasha is also a clinical supervisor.
10.45am - 11.05am	Live Q&A with Tasha Walsh
11.05am - 11.20am	Morning break
11.20am - 11.50am	Two-minute platforms Hear from local members, organisations and BACP staff about projects and workstreams relevant to you and your practice.
11.50am - 12.40pm	Connecting together This session will be divided into different areas of interest, for more focused and structured networking, to engage with colleagues, volunteers and BACP staff to network, share ideas and meet new people with similar interests.
12.40pm - 1.40pm	Lunch break

1.40pm - 2.25pm	Jo Allen - From Addiction to Generation Z via Mud and Macrame - the work of The Counselling & Family Centre (CFC) CFC was founded nearly 45 years ago in response to the tragic death of a young child at the hands of a family member. Since then it has continued to adapt and grow to meet the needs of its community - despite the inevitable setbacks on the way. Today, CFC support about 2,000 children, women and men every year through a range of services, all designed to be as easy as possible to access and to be capable of flexing to meet changing need. Jo Allen is a mother of 4 and grandmother of 6 (to date!). She is a Relate trained Couples Counsellor (although non-practicing), and began at CFC as a counsellor volunteer. Jo then became the co-ordinator, then manager, then CEO of CFC and is still to this day. Jo started out as an Art Historian and worked at The Manchester Museum and the Castle Museum, York. She also worked as a Transport Manager, Practice Manager and Training Manager in 3 very different areas of employment. Jo classes herself as a pragmatist and problem solver.
2.25pm - 2.40pm	Live Q&A with Jo Allen

2:40pm - 2.50pm	Afternoon break
2.50pm - 3.35pm	Thalia Joyner - Chronic Pain & Disability: my life journey, clients and research for change Thalia is an integrative counsellor/psychotherapist in Private Practice based in the South West UK. Thalia specialises in chronic pain, disability, autoimmune, anxiety, domestic abuse and trauma. Thalia is passionate about creating changes in treatments for chronic pain and disabilities, which she has been researching for about 11 years now. Thalia is currently in the process of publishing a journal for this client group to help empower them in their own lives, understand their own symptoms and formulating training that would help professionals work with this client group. Thalia has run an online support group for over 11 years for Scoliosis with 8,500 members now worldwide. Previous to counselling training, Thalia worked in local government in various capacities including rolling out the Every Child Matters Agenda and the Children's Centres in Lincolnshire.
3.35pm - 3.50pm	Live Q & A with Thalia Joyner
3.50pm - 4.00pm	Event close

Please note this programme is subject to change